The Denver Railroad

CHICAGO Nov 24 —A dispatch from Cheyenne reports that fifty four miles of the Denver Railroad are completed. Track laying is progressing a mile and a half daily.

From Canada

QUEBEC, Nov 24 —The Quebec Legislature opened yesterday. The Lieut Governor said the laws for the promotion of agriculture colonization and education had been productive of beneficent results. The exploration and settlement of the country north of the river St Lawrence had been commenced and was actively being prosecuted and had done much toward favoring colonization. Great progress is being made in the division of the surplus debt of the late province of Canada and an early settlement of the expenditures of the last six months is within the estimates.

TORONTO Nov 23 —Black's resolution condemns the course of the Dominion Parliament in relation to the financial arrangements of Nova Scotia as unjust to Ontario and in violation of Federal [illegible]

South American News

NEW YORK, Nov 24 —Letters from Curracoa Venezuela to the [illegible] inst give details of the capture of Maracaibo by the national troops. Pulgar's troops surrendered as soon as the Government forces appeared before the town. Pulgar and fifteen of his adherents sought refuge on board the British steamer Cherub which was not granted until they consented to give up their arms. A conspiracy was afterwards discovered among them to seize the Cherub thereupon the commander steamed with them to Jamaica where they will be tried as pirates.

The Spanish Gunboats

NEW YORK Nov 24 —The Spanish gunboats were not ceased yesterday owing to the non completion of the necessary documents for libeling. Affidavits have been made by Alairo of the Cuban Junta who charges that the gunboats are intended not only to make war on an established government in Cuba but also on Peru. The gunboats are still under the surveillance of the Navy and will probably be taken possession of by the Marshal to day.

New York News.

NEW YORK Nov 24 —In the alleged black mailing case, the prisoner Dr Wedkind was examined. He is charged with receiving $1 000 from Mrs Gallar complainant. But it was returned to that lady by Judge Hogan. Wedkind's bail is fixed at $3 000. Being unable to produce the amount he was remanded. The case is adjourned till Tuesday.

Mrs Wallace who leaped from the fourth story window of a burning building on Saturday gave birth to a still born child in the hospital on Monday. The unfortunate woman still lives, but is unconscious.

Moran, of South Carolina charged by Mrs Lascar with applying to her to procure an abortion on his cousin was released on $10 000 bail. He denies his guilt.

An Englishman Herrick was adroitly robbed of $4 200 at the Bank of Commerce on Monday.

NEW YORK, Nov 24 —The steamship Henry Chauncey from Aspinwall has arrived.

Jones & Hagar's brewery on sixth street, was burned last night. Loss, $50 000.

NEW YORK Nov 26 —Marshal Barlow sent a number of deputies to take charge of the Spanish gunboat Delamter. The contractors for the vessel applied to the State Department for her release on the ground that he was bound to deliver them to the representatives of the Spanish Government on a certain day. His application is on file in Secretary Fish's office.

Petitions for Cuban Recognition

It is stated that the Cuban Junta place great reliance on the action of Congress and are highly encouraged by numerous petitions being signed by the American people praying for the recognition of Cuba by the United States. In addition to the memorials which have been signed by thousands in Mexico Boston Philadelphia and other cities throughout the country, a monster petition has just been started by the ladies of Baltimore, to be signed only by ladies. Four thousand signatures have been obtained in that city alone. The Junta state that if they can do no more than secure the detention of the gunboats till Congress meets they will be content as they feel assured that among the first acts of Congress will be one for the recognition of Cuba. Letters received by the Junta from Havana state that five Spanish war vessels are about to proceed from Cuban waters to New York.

Development of Frauds at New York

NEW YORK, Nov 22 —Collector Grinnell has received additional information regarding the preparation of the most stupendous frauds against the Government by mercantile firms in this city. Over two hundred respectable merchants, many occupying prominent positions are now under suspicion of having participated in these frauds which extend through several months during the last administration. Their names will be suppressed pending the official investigation now being conducted at the Custom House. The frauds were accomplished by means of false invoices and under valuations of imported merchandise and are believed to involve a vast amount of money.

CHICAGO Nov 24 —A New York special thinks Collector Grinnell will resign shortly. Hiram Walbridge Ezra Cornell and Judge [illegible] are mentioned for the succession.

The Cuban Junta expect to secure the release of the Hornet soon. Another gunboat is expected from Halifax shortly.

A D Richardson Shot

NEW YORK Nov 25 —Albert D Richardson war correspondent and long attached to the New York Tribune was shot to night and fatally wounded by Paul McFarland a lawyer between whom there existed for a considerable time past an estrangement caused by alleged intimacy by the former with the latter's wife. McFarland who it seems had entree of the Tribune was standing behind the counter in the business department in conversation with one of the employees about six this evening. Richardson entered the Tribune office going up to the counter and entered into conversation with a young man who was in the habit of working for him. A few minutes after Richardson's entrance McFarland walked over to him without saying a word and fired a pistol, wounding Richardson in the abdomen. The wounded man without saying a word walked up to the Tribune editorial rooms when he was [illegible] to a drug store to have his wound attended. He is not expected to recover. McFarland was arrested. There seems to have been no excitement or motive to this deliberate deed. Difficulty between McFarland and Richardson occurred over a year ago. At the time referred to Richardson denied the charge of improper intimacy with McFarland's wife but published a card stating his intention to marry her after a divorce [illegible]

NEW YORK Nov [illegible] The shooting of Richardson by McFarland is [illegible] the result of hatred based on belief that Richardson alienated his wife's affections. Some persons in the Tribune office think McFarland was under the influence of liquor at the time [illegible] Richardson is conscious and his physicians are [illegible] The ball seems to be lodged [illegible] There is deep indignation in the community against the man who twice attempted deliberate assassination.

The Railroad War

CLEVELAND Nov 26 McHenry arrived in a special car from New York to night on business connected with the railroad embroglio. It is understood that relations between the two interests are more pacific consequently the McHenry party [illegible] to vote to [illegible] majority [illegible] time to parry the blows of Vanderbilt [illegible] Ramsey [illegible] and [illegible] Fisk party [illegible] so as to compel justice to us.

The Prize Ring

ST LOUIS Nov 26 McCoole will publish a challenge to Tom Allen tomorrow [illegible] Allen [illegible] attempting to throw [illegible] the [illegible] and says [illegible] test. Allen's willingness to meet him in the ring [illegible] desire to fight [illegible] proposes that each [illegible] the ground and [illegible] fight battle.

South Carolina

COLUMBIA Nov 26 The [illegible]

Tragedy in Tennessee

MEMPHIS Nov 24 A terrible affair occurred at Christianville Tenn on Monday. A party of masked men went to the house of Thomas Jones planter for the purpose of disarming negroes working for him. Jones having an intimation of this, determined to resist, as the negroes had been peaceable and well disposed. He made the proper means for defence and when he raiders came they were met with a fire which caused them to retreat leaving two mortally wounded. One died next morning. It is said he was mixed into the scrape. The excitement next morning was intense. Officers came and arrested Jones and his negroes. Owing to the excitement Jones was carried to the river in charge of the deputy Sheriff and placed on board the steamer [illegible] and brought here while the Sheriff with the negroes started for Troy but on the way was attacked by a posse who took five negroes into the woods and shot them down. The Sheriff by hard begging succeeded in saving the lives of the others who were taken to Troy and put in jail. The excitement at Tipton is intense as the parties were well known. It is supposed that other blood will be shed before the matter is settled in Court.

Virginia Affairs.

RICHMOND Va, Nov 25 —The Republican State Convention adopted an address to Congress setting forth that the recent election in Virginia was a Confederate triumph achieved by intimidation and fraud that the true secret of the Republican defeat was the submission to a separate vote of the test oath and disfranchising clauses that the Convention has confidence in the Republicanism of the President and the majority in Congress, who have been deceived with regard to the true state of affairs in Virginia that the present Legislature is a disloyal and illegal body and even if it ratifies the Fifteenth Amendment it will enact such educational and property qualifications as to entirely destroy the influence of colored suffrage and prevent colored voters from holding office and serving as jurors. It asks Congress to order a new election with the constitution submitted as a whole, and send a military force sufficient to protect Republicans in their rights to require the test oath from members of the Legislature to vacate the seats of members unable to take the oath and give them to eligible opponents who received the next highest vote. This report is signed by six out of eight members of the committee appointed to prepare it.

The Western Associated Press.

CLEVELAND Nov 24 —The Western Associated Press meeting is largely attended. The Board of Directors are instructed to employ reporters for each branch of Congress, and to make special reports of the proceedings for the Western press. The question of the removal of the head quarters of the agency to Chicago, after some discussion, was referred to the Board of Directors. The following is the new Board of Directors Walker of Detroit, Medill of Chicago Sebeck of Pittsburg Holdeman of Louisville, Fairbanks of Cleveland, Knapp of St Louis and Bickham of Dayton. The time of the annual meeting was changed to June 1st.

Another Steamboat Accident

ST LOUIS, Nov 24 —Captain Blake, of the steamer Rubicon gives some particulars of the accident to his boat on Saturday. The fire was discovered at 2 o clock in the morning under the pilot house which, with the upper part of the deck, was in a moment furiously ablaze. The boat was headed for shore the pilot standing at his post till the wheel itself caught fire and till the very moment the boat touched. The passengers were fifty five in number twenty two of whom were women and children. They were all saved. Meantime the crew got the hose and put several streams of water on the fire which was soon extinguished and the boat proceeded on her voyage.

Woman's Suffrage.

CLEVELAND, Nov 24 —The Woman Suffrage Association met in Case Hall at 11 o clock. Lucy Stone Blackwell called the Convention to order and read a circular letter prepared by a committee. Judge Brodwell of Chicago was chosen temporary chairman and a committee on credentials was appointed.

Letters were received from Mrs Francis D Gage and George W Cutler. Mrs Julia Wade Hone read a lengthy letter in favor of the objects of the Convention. Judge Brodwell said it had been repeatedly decided by the courts that American women are citizens of the country while the foreign born woman is not naturalized by the naturalization of her husband and must make separate application. Suppose Vermont confers the ballot on woman as she probably will and women on whom the ballot is thus conferred move out West they might claim the right to vote under the Fifteenth Amendment. Mrs Ames of California made a few remarks. The committee on credentials reported delegates present from fifteen States. A committee on permanent organization was appointed. In the afternoon session Colonel Higgins of Philadelphia was elected President with several Vice Presidents and Secretaries. A letter was read from Lloyd Garrison and one from Mrs Francis D Gage.

The Canadian Troubles

NEW YORK Nov [illegible] The Toronto [illegible] St Paul's special says a gentleman from Fort [illegible] reports that the English half breeds and whites take little or no part in the demonstrations of the insurgents who are chiefly French half breeds. A system of passes is adopted and strict surveillance is exercised. The insurgents have taken possession of the Hudson Bay store houses and are dealing out to themselves from that company's supplies. Dr Brown editor of the [illegible] refused to print the rebel proclamation but the printers were forced at the mouth of the musket to issue the document which is posted at various parts of the rebel district and at the Red River trading house at St Paul. We learn there is a strong organization including many half breeds [illegible] a favorable opportunity to declare for [illegible] McDougall and Fenian [illegible] are said to be [illegible] the [illegible] of the disturbers.

South Carolina Legislature

COLUMBIA Nov 24 The State Legislature convened yesterday. The Governor's message was read to day. He speaks cheerfully of the [illegible] financial condition of the State and recommends that the interest on the debt be paid [illegible] He takes grounds against State aid to railroads and advocates the passage of laws to [illegible] He urges special [illegible] the manufacture of agricultural implements.

Virginia Politics

RICHMOND Nov [illegible] At the Republican [illegible] Convention [illegible] day [illegible] Central Committee [illegible] He said he hoped the [illegible] would be [illegible] at [illegible] admission of the State into the Union.

Washington News

WASHINGTON Nov 25 The [illegible] speech [illegible] May [illegible] is [illegible] regarded as [illegible] to be not [illegible] of the [illegible] unsatisfactory [illegible] the United States. This [illegible] strong here by [illegible] in England making [illegible] continued [illegible] feeling [illegible] subject [illegible] expression of the [illegible] that the [illegible] There has however been [illegible] but the aspects and to be [illegible] that negotiations will be resumed [illegible] day.

The [illegible] District Attorney Pierrepont [illegible] last week was not with a [illegible] [illegible] the Spanish gunboats but while here [illegible] was brought to his attention. A voluminous protest from the contractors for the building of the vessels has been received by the government. They complain of the conduct of Peru and of the United States for their detention and are laying foundations for claims for damages. It is in consequence of this protest and with a view to a decision by the Courts that legal proceedings were ordered to be instituted libeling the vessels this being a preliminary suit and contrary to the recently published statements there was no protest by the Spanish Minister against legal proceedings. The truth is he is not dissatisfied with them and certainly his conferences with the Secretary of State have been altogether free from excitement.

The latest information from Cuba concerning the insurgents shows a decline of their cause. They are not in possession of a single town having been obliged to abandon even Guaymas the seat of Cespedes Government. There is now no doubt that several months ago Gen Jordon proposed to surrender to the Spanish authorities, not on his own account, but that of his men from the United States who were he said forced to take the front in battle, and in consequence few American soldiers survived. But the Cubans prevented the consummation of Jordon's object, who being unable to leave the country was transferred to the staff of Cespedes.

WASHINGTON Nov 25 —A Washington special says it is generally believed that the Spanish gunboats will be released the Peruvian minister apparently taking no step to sustain charges that they are intended to be used against Peru.

Vincent Colyer arrived at Omaha yesterday for Sitka.

Military

Capt C H Coulton has been relieved from duty as Professor of Military Science in Miami University and ordered to report to the commanding General of the Department of the Platte. Lieut J J B Haydon is relieved from duty as Indian Agent and ordered to duty in the Department of the Platte.

International Fair

To night at a public meeting at which there was a large attendance the committee reported that after two days canvassing they had obtained on subscription $23 000 including $5 000 from President Grant in furthering the International Fair at Washington in 1871. The announcement was enthusiastically received, and was followed by an additional subscription of $20 000 which with the subscription by the city makes a total of $120 000.

Seizure of Spanish Gunboats

NEW YORK Nov 24 —The Spanish gunboats have been seized and are now in custody of the United States awaiting the action of the court. The writs are returnable on the 14th of December in the U S District Court before Judge Blatchford but it is considered probable that the case will be opened immediately. Webster, son in law of Secretary Fish, and one of the counsel for the Spanish Government called on District Attorney Pierrepont in relation to the matter but the substance of the interview has not transpired. It is understood that Webster is now preparing the necessary bonds preparatory to making application for the release of the gunboats.

Erie Railroad Affairs

NEW YORK Nov 2[illegible] The stay of proceedings [illegible] granted by Judge Bascom has [illegible] has been commenced [illegible] the name of the Erie company against Ramsey and others the exact [illegible] which cannot [illegible] ascertained. It is further said that Judge [illegible] an injunction the effect of which [illegible] Ramsey from the prosecution of the [illegible] altogether. If such is the case another [illegible] may be expected on the opposite side almost immediately. It is scarcely possible anything additional can take place untill Judge Murray's [illegible] disposed of which [illegible] possibly [illegible] two weeks. It was reported here to day that the friends of the Susquehanna Road have determined to carry the war into the enemy's camp. The [illegible] the Erie Railroad Company is strongly guarded, no one being admitted without the countersign. Fisk is said to have been in Boston. Gould is reported very ill.

Arrangements have been made for a new line of British steamers between New York and the Mediterranean.

Evacuation day was celebrated to day by a grand parade by the Firemen and Military.

NEW YORK, Nov 24 Fisk & Gould have obtained from a Judge of the Supreme Court an order staying proceedings in the suit instituted against them by Ramsey in behalf of himself and other stockholders of the Erie railroad. The order is to continue in force until the decision of the motion of which they have given notice of, to have an injunction granted by Judge Murray dissolved and the order of suspension vacated. The order has been served on the plaintiff.

At the special term of the Supreme Court to be held at Delhi, an order was granted by the Court on Tuesday suspending Jay Gould Jas. Fisk, Jr Frederick A Lane Abraham Gould, Leo Hall [illegible] Smith and Charles G Sesson, as Directors of the Erie Railroad Company. A referee will be immediately appointed in this city to take evidence in regard to the conduct of the affairs of the company. An action has been commenced by James H Ramsey a well known citizen at Albany in behalf the stockholders and bond holders of the Erie Railroad. The plaintiff complains that moneys received by defendant have been no less than $41 293 000. Items enumerated are earnings of the road $19 000 000; sales of new stock $15 000 000 from Daniel Drew, T [illegible] new issue of bonds, 754,000. He avers that there has not been kept among books and records of the company any account of the statement of the terms or amounts in the creation or issue or sales of such bonds or stock, nor of the person to whom such sales were made, nor of the price compounded or amounts realized for the same nor of the use made of the proceeds thereof. Also that they had the use of all the said money and have employed it in [illegible] gold and other speculations. In the opinion of plaintiff said moneys are not in safe custody. Among the enterprises specified in the complaint as having been entered into with the help of the Erie Company's money is the grand opera house which figures conspicuously among incidentals. The results of the ring's endeavors to [illegible] strength for its own purposes has been the formation of an alliance with Tammany. The complaint sets forth that this connection of Gould, Fisk and company has been in the habit of interfering with political [illegible] in their official positions, and have applied money belonging to said company for such purposes in further compelling the company's agents and employes to use their influence in connection with [illegible] purposes.

CHICAGO, Nov 25 —New York [illegible] say that an injunction has been issued by Judge Murray, of the Supreme Court, against Gould, Fisk, et al., of the Erie Railroad, and causes much [illegible] among financiers. It is generally believed the effort will not be successful, but it is admitted on all sides that the attempt is the [illegible] one and the strongest ever made against the Erie management. The affair is practically a continuation of the quarrel between Fisk and Albany and Susquehanna Railroad last summer. [illegible] principal mover is Jos. H. Ramsay, [illegible] of the road. It is understood he is backed by a majority of the Erie stock holders and by Drew, Vanderbilt and other [illegible] the Fisk Gould combination. The venue is laid in Delaware county. [illegible] covers ninety one printed pages, and gives a history of the Erie road from its commencement. [illegible] that Fisk and Gould got [illegible] of the [illegible] by fraud. Ramsey claims to be a [illegible] though he does not say to what extent. He [illegible] he has further claims against the company which he is unable to collect. He charges that the stock of the road has [illegible] the conduct of Fisk, Gould and company, and that the line is practically [illegible] in which this has been done is [illegible] great class. [illegible]

While some of the charges are [illegible] and weighty, others are frivolous, and Fisk and Gould will make an effort to have the case transferred to New York city on the [illegible] the courts in the county are [illegible] It is rumored that they are transferring the books and papers to Jersey city and will [illegible] there. Books and Newspapers

With the multiplication of cheap publications of all descriptions it is evident that people every year read more and more, yet a moment's inquiry into their reading habits will convince any one that [illegible] who make pretensions to [illegible] and culture few are diligent readers of books. That is, they do not seek knowledge by a diligent study of standard authors in which voluminous tomes are hidden away the treasures of learning. For poetry the dictionary of quotations will suffice for the drama a theatrical rehearsal of some of the productions of the greatest masters will content; for theology, the 'system' of some favorite lecturer or divine is quite enough; for politics and political economy the newspaper is almost the sole reliance. The man who has not, or thinks he has not the time to read 'solid' books relies on the superficial knowledge of them which he obtains at second hand sometimes in conversation and sometimes through the newspapers and magazines. In this way many satisfy their pride, furnish their conversation and keep up a show of acquaintance with authors and literature,—an acquaintance which it would be deemed humiliating not to possess.

A recent writer well says "With most men, certainly with most men of active business anything like methodical reading is altogether given over before thirty is reached and very often even the taste for it is lost by that time. They may collect libraries and fill their shelves with all the standard literature,—for a library is a part of the furniture of every well-appointed house—but they let the dust collect on the books, for which they have much respect but no passion.

It follows from this that the newspaper and magazine, which everybody reads and reads constantly, are all the time becoming more and more the great sources of intelligence and even of education, for nearly all classes. It is now becoming the case that he who writes for the periodical press is surer of readers than he who publishes a book. The consequence is that the periodical press is absorbing more and more of the best writing of the time. Very many of the best work men in literature are now employed almost exclusively on the magazines. Their productions, presented in this shape, obtain ten [illegible] where they would scarcely obtain one if issued in any other. This evident tendency of the times in regard to habits of reading, may not be favorable to deep culture and solid learning, but it is highly favorable to a wide diffusion of general information among the masses of the people.

Cotton and Cotton Goods

We gather from late Eastern papers some important facts relative to the supply of cotton and the condition of trade in cotton goods. It is now generally admitted that the cotton crop of the United States, now coming into market, is considerably larger than that of last year. It is also admitted that the supply to the world for the year ending Sept. 30, 1868, was insufficient for the consumption at the low range of prices that year, and the deficiency was made good by drawing down the stocks on hand from 1,092,000 bales, Oct. 1, 1867, to 614,000 bales, Oct. 1, 1868; whereas the stocks Oct. 1, 1869, a year later, are only 31,000 bales less than they were Oct. 1, 1868. Yet in the face of this deficiency, and of the fact that all Europe is at peace; that money is plenty and cheap; that breadstuffs are low; the price of cotton is falling off. A portion of this fall may be attributed to the fact that English manufacturers are stopping their spindles on account of a lessened demand for the manufactured article, which is also the case in the United States. For the year ending Aug 31, 1868, statistics show that 965,668 bales were used up in this country; but in the year ending with the same date in 1869 only 864 254 bales were manufactured.

A prominent commercial journal argues from these figures that, while there is an apparent, or theoretical demand for cotton, or rather, while statistics show that the aggregate production of cotton throughout the world has decreased, the demand for it has really fallen off. There must be some cause for this. At present this cause has not yet been fairly understood. Still the fact is patent that the trade of the world refuses to take the production of cotton goods at prices commensurate with those of the raw material; while the average result to manufacturers, since the rise of the price of cotton last January, has been a loss, taking the raw cotton, at market value. From all of which it is evident that we must look for lower prices still, both of the staple and of the manufactured article.

In General

The Herald wants to know if the Democrats have not gained in Illinois? It is wonderful to see how continually the Democratic papers are figuring up "gains" for their party, and how steadily, year after year, their party meets with defeat. Elections like that recently held in Illinois amount to nothing as indications of party strength and future political results. Grant could carry Illinois any day by more than the fifty-one thousand majority that he obtained last year.

It is estimated that there are eight hundred and fifty cotton mills in the United States, running nearly seven millions of spindles. Of the cotton mills, nearly four hundred and fifty, or over one half are in New England, running over five millions of spindles. The capital employed in the cotton manufacture in this country is estimated at $100,000,000. Add to this the capital employed in the culture, the transportation and the brokerage, and it will be perceived how vast is the importance of this useful plant in the way of furnishing employment as well as in the practical uses to which it is applied.

Full returns from the New York election show that in many strong Republican counties where the majorities for Sigel and Greeley were large Democratic candidates for the Legislature were elected. In this way that party secured a majority in that body. Such a result is due to Republican feuds and animosities of long standing. But everybody seems to have got even this year and the Democrats of New York will not soon carry the Legislature again. It will be remembered that they carried the Ohio Legislature in 1867 but the Republicans reversed that in the next general election. So it will be in New York.

The conditions named in the grant for the new Belgo-American cable are that the line is not to touch on any foreign territory between the two coasts; it is to be in working order by the 1st of September 1871 less than two years from the present date. The privilege is to be exclusive within the period of twenty years. The Belgian Government is to have [illegible] general supervision as to prevent the [illegible] use of messages, which are [illegible] offered to our Government as to this [illegible] nus of the line. This makes the line a Government [illegible] a postal extension in fact without cost to either Government.

The [illegible] Tribune in commenting on the fact that [illegible] of New York is [illegible] [illegible] and will [illegible] his [illegible] and executive [illegible] to the best advantage [illegible] During his term [illegible] of the Legislature [illegible] his capacity in this [illegible] like an avalanche [illegible] some cross roads meeting house that wanted special legislation [illegible] to enable it to sell its mortgage its property at the same time that he signed without objection [illegible] Fisk's great bill extending the control of the present Directors of the Erie for six years. He will pursue the same course hereafter. [illegible] all petty temptations he will oppose the [illegible] front of honesty. They will fall below his price.

Illinois Constitutional Convention

The Herald which is searching eagerly for crumbs of comfort quotes from the Chicago Times to show that the Democrats have a majority in the Illinois Constitutional Convention. This result is figured out by classifying delegates elected independent of party as Democrats. We hope the Herald will digest the following from the Chicago Tribune of Nov 12th:

The State Register claims a majority of one for the Democrats in the Constitutional Convention by counting Mr Buxton of Clinton county and Mr Haines, of Lake county as Democrats. It admits that they are both Republicans, but holds that inasmuch as they were elected in opposition to the regular Republican nominees in their districts they must have been voted for by Democrats, and hence must be under obligation to vote with the Democrats in the Convention.

The real fact is that the Democratic party is weaker by five or six votes in the Convention than we have allowed in the classification of members which we have published. We have stated that of the eighty five members elected forty four are Republicans, and forty one are Democrats. This is the exact truth, but when the Democratic caucus is convened at Springfield there will not be forty one members in it. The presiding officer of the Convention will be a Republican, and he will have more than forty four votes to elect him. The State Register will please make a note of this prediction, and see whether it is verified or not.

MESSRS. EVERSON & HAINES, General Agents New England Mutual Life Insurance Company, Boston

Gentlemen—On my own behalf and in the name of my orphan children, I beg to thank you, and through you the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company of Boston for its munificence in paying me my terminated policy on the life of my husband. On the 21st January 1869 misfortune compelled me to forego the payment of the last premium—which non payment in any other company would have lost me my policy—but I am now overjoyed with the receipt of the amount of the policy (less the amount of the unpaid premium only), thanks to the equity of the Massachusetts Lapse Laws, that must bless many widows and their children. I recommend the New England Mutual to all who would provide against possible misfortune. I sincerely thank you again gentlemen for the payment, and also for your generous and gentlemanly assistance in the matter.

Respectfully, BETSEY MILLER

IN THE

New England Mutual

LIFE INS CO IN 1868

[illegible] Official Report [illegible]

The Miller Insurance Policy.

Some Facts and Figures

WE GENERAL AGENTS OF LIFE INSURANCE Companies doing business in this city [illegible] our attention called to some gross misstatements from the Agents of the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company in relation to the settlement of the Policy No 13 054 which was held by the late A C E Miller in that company. We do not propose [illegible] to state [illegible] is calculated to mislead the public about the operations of standard Companies doing business here and therefore give the following statement derived from an official letter written by the Actuary of the New England [illegible] [illegible] that if [illegible] had been carried [illegible] [illegible] the life of Mr Miller's death [illegible] in any first class company [illegible] years without any additional payment [illegible] and that in this instance the Massachusetts Lapse Law had nothing to do with the payment of the claim and that if Mr Miller had not had money to his credit in the hands of the Company in the shape of dividends, which he did not draw at the times they were declared, because the Company failed to apprise him that he had anything to his credit until January 1869 and he had not paid his premium for 1869 his family would not have been paid the amount of his policy.

Mr Miller did not, as the public are led to believe, allow his policy to lapse.

When he found that he had a surplus in the Company which had been accumulating from dividends for several years he concluded to allow that amount to be applied to the payment of his premiums until it was exhausted.

Condition of Policy 13 054 January 21st 1869

Credit
By dividend in hands of Company for six years			$241 85
Interest overpaid			29 27
			$277 12
Add dividend for 1869 (estimated)			70 61
Total credit			$341 73
Debit
To premium due Jan 21 1869—
Note premium	$81 50
Cash premium		81 50
Int. on notes		30 23
			$120 73
Leaving a balance to his credit at his death from dividends of			221 00

Which, with the dividends accruing would carry a similar policy in any well established company for several years without further cash payments.

Basis on which Policy No 13 054 was settled:

Face of Policy	$5 000 00
Add cash to his credit at time of death	221 00
Total	$5 221 00
Deduct notes given to Company for premiums	570 50
Amount due on Policy at death	$4 650 50

REJOINDER.

TO THE PUBLIC.—Several Agents of Life Ins. Companies made a publication in reference to Correspondence had on the payment of Policy No 13 054 to the widow of A E C Miller pronouncing the correspondence gross misstatements.

The statement of those Agents who attack us, is as cool as it is [illegible] If they have a desire to give the public the "official letter" they refer to they can have the use of it for publication. IT MAKES NO SUCH STATEMENTS AS THEY PRETEND TO QUOTE FROM IT. We have it on file and any gentleman who wishes can see it by calling at our office.

These agents of other companies further say "When he (Miller) found that he had a surplus in the Company which had been accumulating from dividends for several years, he concluded to allow that amount to be applied to the payment of his premiums until it was exhausted," they then state

Face of Policy	$5 000 00
Add cash to his Cr at time of death	221 00
		$5 221 00
Deduct notes given to the Company		570 50

They thus in one place assert the Policy to have a surplus to its credit but when they figure (figures tell the truth) they make the Policy in debt to the Company and deduct the indebtedness. They further say that the Policy would have been carried not only to the date of Mr Miller's death but in any first class company for years without any additional payment AND STILL THEY FIGURE IT ALL RIGHT TO DEDUCT $349 50 AFTER ONLY SIX MONTHS AND PAY $4 650 50. If their statements be true the Company should have paid more than the face of the Policy.

We respectfully ask every citizen who holds a Policy in a company any of these gentlemen represent to read it and see whether if he fails to pay his premium on the very day it falls due if it is not declared to be null and void. THERE IS NO SAVING MASSACHUSETTS CLAUSE IN IT. Mr Miller's annual premium was $163. He paid the same half cash and half notes. At the time of his death four and a part of the fifth notes had been cancelled by his dividends and returned [illegible] the Policy was indebted for the balance of notes and interest to 21st Jan 1869

[illegible]	$ 76 76
Premium due and NOT PAID on Jan 21 1869	163 00
Total charges	239 76
Add Interest from Jan 21st to Aug 2d	10 [illegible]
Making Amount deducted from face of Policy	349 50

[illegible] refutation of the statement made that 1 405 Policies "forfeited in 1868" we refer to the same Commissioner Haines last Report [illegible]

The report says these Policies Lapsed. They now come under the Massachusetts Lapse Laws as did Mr [illegible] Policy and any of them would be paid under similar circumstances by our Company.

We Forfeit Nothing!

MRS MILLER AND HER CHILDREN GOT THE MONEY but just [illegible] under the Lapse Laws of Massachusetts. The statement is made by the [illegible] [illegible]

PRESENTATION.—Just prior to the ceremonies of dedicating the Odd Fellows Hall at Oregon City on Thursday, the ladies—Daughters of Rebekah and wives of Odd Fellows—presented Oregon Lodge No. 3, with an elegant [illegible]. The following are the addresses of presentation and acceptance:

Mrs. [illegible] Fellows, on behalf of the ladies said:

[illegible] and members of Oregon Lodge No. 3—Sirs: It having long been the desire of the [illegible] Daughters of Rebekah and wives of Odd Fellows to present the lodge something as a token of esteem and high [illegible] for Odd Fellowship, as their representatives we [illegible] for such purpose. Allow us first to state [illegible] the reasons and motives which created this desire on our part. Some of us having been the recipients [illegible] of the many charitable and benevolent acts of [illegible], and all of us seeing, feeling and knowing that [illegible] daily some of our friends or relatives are receiving [illegible] benefits either directly or indirectly [illegible] Odd Fellowship, and having learned a short time [illegible] the brothers called at a house of mourning for the purpose of presenting a purse containing money for the relief of that widow and those little ones and extend [illegible] sympathy and pledging the support and assistance [illegible] ship to her, notwithstanding she had [illegible] upon them other than such as are imposed by [illegible] and teachings of Odd Fellowship which bind [illegible] Odd Fellows to regard all mankind as members [illegible] brotherhood—and whilst they are bound by [illegible] to assist each other in times of need, they are [illegible] by their teachings to render such assistance as they can to any and all suffering humanity—Noble [illegible], would it not be strange if we as women knowing that the widows and orphans are the recipients of [illegible] from this lodge and Order, did not feel [illegible] such an institution and feel that we owe [illegible] than we can ever pay? Would it not be stranger [illegible] we did not, after learning that such are the principles taught by Odd Fellowship, desire to become more [illegible] allied to such an institution? Thanks to the [illegible] this lodge and its members, by the organization of [illegible] Lodges, we too are placed in [illegible] with Odd Fellowship, where we may become [illegible]. May the time soon come when all [illegible] shall become Odd Fellows at heart, if [illegible]. Such, Sirs, are some of the reasons [illegible] which actuate us. Allow us here [illegible] the sincere thanks of the widows and orphans [illegible] by this lodge, and our thanks for the [illegible] and the assistance rendered our friends [illegible]. Sirs, we assure you that you have the [illegible] of all true women who know the works and [illegible] upon which the institution is founded, and [illegible] they send to Heaven for the extension [illegible] of Odd Fellowship. Knowing the [illegible] this lodge would probably be in [illegible] should be completed, which by the [illegible] of this lodge and her members, is now finished [illegible] to the place and a monument of the [illegible] thought some article of [illegible] would be an appropriate present for us to make [illegible] from money realized from our late fair and [illegible] you all contributed liberally, we purchased [illegible] which we now, in the name of the Daughters of Rebekah, wives of Odd Fellows and friends [illegible] to this lodge. Again thanking [illegible] members for their many favors, and [illegible] of the readiness of the wives of Odd Fellows [illegible] in furnishing the building, or [illegible] for the benefit of the order, we remain yours in [illegible] Truth.

[illegible] McCown, on behalf of the lodge replied: [illegible] on your mission of love [illegible] behalf of our lodge and by desire [illegible] you our most hearty thanks for [illegible]. You have adorned our [illegible] of our lodge room, [illegible] and now behold us as we are. [illegible] to know from your own lips [illegible] our humble efforts to lessen human [illegible]

[illegible] those who love us—
[illegible] kind and true;
[illegible] that smiles above us,
[illegible] our spirits too,
[illegible] that lacks assistance;
[illegible] that needs resistance—
[illegible] the distance,
[illegible] that we can do."

[illegible] the widow's tears, assuaged the [illegible] the house of mourning, we [illegible] instruments in His hands to dispense [illegible] have ourselves received. We could [illegible] our works of benevolence were, that [illegible] which you as Mothers, [illegible] so generously furnish. [illegible] found ready to [illegible] out by the couch of pain; to hope [illegible] dark and cheerless; to pour [illegible] make sorrow give place to joy [illegible] the world through, you [illegible] more appropriate gift; one which [illegible] highly prized by us. You have [illegible] have made complete the [illegible]. We thank you, again [illegible] and will show your [illegible] gift by having its soul-inspiring [illegible] voices in praise to the [illegible] with the [illegible] this hall to the holy principles [illegible] and Charity, and hereafter, as [illegible] this lodge room and listen [illegible] your gift, we will remember [illegible] pray God to hasten the time when [illegible] fully and completely in all our works [illegible] and Charity. You have [illegible] to say, taken the first step. If [illegible] which the prize [illegible] your efforts and ere long [illegible] the [illegible] so profusely around the [illegible] that time, and may Heaven [illegible] with you is our prayer.

[illegible] Primary—Miss L. Haney, Teacher. Whole number [illegible] boys 48, girls 39. average attendance [illegible]

[illegible] Department—Mrs. Ogden, Teacher [illegible] enrolled 73, boys 44; girls 29; average [illegible]

[illegible]—Yesterday, Judge Upton rendered [illegible] denying an application for a writ of mandamus [illegible] by Caples & Moreland, Attorneys for Robt [illegible] to compel the County Clerk, B. L. Norden, to [illegible] order payable in gold coin, on the Treasurer of [illegible] county, in favor of the plaintiff, for the [illegible] rendered for Robert McCalla [illegible] Multnomah county.

[illegible] are as follows: Robt. McCalla commenced [illegible] Court against the county of Multnomah for damages sustained by his minor son in falling [illegible] bridge. A change of venue was [illegible] county, and on the 25th day of [illegible], a judgment was rendered in favor of McCalla [illegible] Multnomah county for $8,658 00 and costs [illegible] was taken to the Supreme Court, where the [illegible] was affirmed against the county of Multnomah [illegible] of P. A. Marquam, E. L. Quimby, and [illegible] Boyd and B. L. Norden, sureties on appeal [illegible] of $3,935 17 and $51 60 costs and disbursements [illegible] in the Supreme Court. On the 3d day of November [illegible] the above named defendants, Marquam, Quimby [illegible] and Norden for themselves and in behalf of [illegible] county, paid to the Clerk of the Circuit Court [illegible] county, $4,100 47 in legal tender notes [illegible] of the affirmed judgment, interest, costs and [illegible], and upon the payment of this sum being [illegible] the Clerk of that Court entered satisfaction of the [illegible]

[illegible] plaintiffs in this proceeding claim that the judgment of McCalla should have been paid with a county [illegible] payable in gold and silver coin, and that the payment [illegible] United States legal tender notes was no satisfaction of the judgment.

[illegible], Judge Upton denied the application for a [illegible] with costs against plaintiffs.

[illegible] Moreland for plaintiffs; Kelly & Reed for defendants.

[illegible]—This humorist and delineator of [illegible] will give one of his interesting and laughable [illegible] at Oregon City this evening, and early [illegible] week will appear again in this city—probably at [illegible] Hall. We did not attend his former entertainment [illegible] but from those who were present, we hear [illegible] and unreserved commendations. The [illegible] has appeared before large audiences in California and other States, and the press has been [illegible] in conceding to him the possession of rare [illegible], comic delineations, laughable mimicry, etc. We shall hope to see him well patronized when he shall return to this city.

RELIGIOUS.—From the Advocate: It is contemplation to resume work on the M. E. Church at an early day. The Trustees with the aid of the congregation and friends, are determined to have it completed before another winter.

Rev. J. L. Parish in his address at the prayer meeting at the M. E. Church on Tuesday evening last, said that when he was sent to preach the gospel in Portland in 1843 the meetings were then held in a cooper shop and the people were few.

The Hall Street Church in South Portland and the Church in East Portland, constitute but one charge. Rev. A. C. Fairchild the Pastor. Bro. Fairchild will preach in East Portland at 11 A. M. and at Hall street at 3 P. M.

Rev. W. I. Cosper informs us that he has recently held a series of very interesting meetings at Springville, Oregon. This is a place of growing importance. A number of persons have united with the church and both there and on the opposite side of the river the people take interest in the cause of truth and righteousness.

Rev. G. Hines held a meeting on last Saturday and Sabbath at Columbus 15 miles above the Dalles on the Washington side of the Columbia river. The people came in from portions of the Clickitat valley distant 30 miles. The meeting was attended with divine power and interest. Eight persons united with the Church and much good was accomplished in that new field.

CIRCUIT COURT—UPTON, JUDGE.—Proceedings of Friday Nov. 26th.

Ben Holladay et al vs S. G. Elliott, J. B. Rodgers et al. Demurrer to complaint in part of Rodgers overruled and prayer for injunction temporarily sustained.

O. C. R. R. Co vs W. C. White. Continued.

Catherine Shaw vs Benj. F. Shaw. Settled and dismissed.

B. F. Benham, Adm'r vs W. S. Caldwell. Demurrer to complaint overruled and defendant allowed till Monday to plead.

State of Oregon vs Francis Marwain. Dismissed and sureties on bail exonerated.

Geo. Durand vs A. Reynard et al. Motion to make complaint more specific overruled. Defendant allowed till Monday to answer.

James Lanaghan vs Multnomah county. Motion to strike out part of amended complaint, taken under advisement.

Shirott & Groner vs Phillippi & Coleman. Motion to strike paper purporting to be findings of Justice of the Peace from the files argued and taken under advisement.

BRIEF MENTION.—Harmony Hall in Gilman's building will be dedicated this evening.

Rev. D. Bagley and Judge Wyche of Washington Territory will be among the passengers by the steamer this evening. Going to Washington City.

There are thirteen prisoners in the county jail, five of whom are under sentence of confinement in the penitentiary—Andrew Dertinger, Ed Kennedy, Jacob Ripley, Henry J. Heath and Indian Jim.

The weather at the Dalles was reported yesterday, clear and cold. Here it was clear, pleasant and not cold.

The brig Brewster was towed over to this side yesterday afternoon, and is now ready to receive freight for San Francisco.

The condition of streets and cross walks is greatly improved by the late day or two of pleasant weather.

DEDICATION BALL AT OREGON CITY.—There was an unexpectedly large audience at the dedication ball at Oregon City Thursday evening. There were fully eighty gentlemen and nearly or quite one hundred ladies present. The hall, though of pretty good size, was rather crowded notwithstanding which the ball was an eminently pleasant affair. The music was furnished by the Mechanic's Band, of Portland. At twelve o'clock midnight, an elegant, almost sumptuous supper was served by Mr. Barlow of the Cliff House. The dancing continued with a full floor till nearly daybreak—everybody happy and everything lovely. The dedication and the ball will be long remembered as a particularly pleasant occasion, by all who had the good fortune to be present.

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY.—President N. Rounds writes to the Advocate: "Allow me to say to the friends of this Institution that its prospects are decidedly hopeful. I entered to-day the one hundred and ninety third student on the list of scholars for this term. This is exclusive of the Medical Department, which added would make the entire body of students 207. The students are remarkably well behaved. The Faculty are united, diligent and successful. Vocal music is now taught thoroughly to the whole, excepting the medical, by a highly competent Professor. The Library has already reached more than 200 volumes. Rev. A. F. Waller and son have presented $60 worth since the last report.

CLOSE OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—The public schools closed yesterday for a vacation of one week; will begin winter term on Monday, December 6th. We called for an hour or so at the Central School House yesterday afternoon, to witness the closing exercises, consisting of declamations, dialogues, recitations, compositions, singing, etc. The pupils seemed to be quite ready in most things, cheerful, and deeply interested in the exercises. Many of the performances were decidedly creditable both to teachers and pupils. We are under the impression, from what we saw and heard that Mr. Warren, at the head of this school, is the right man in the right place.

LEWIS RIVER MINES.—The Register says: The excitement about the mines is rising again since the last exhibition of gold in Vancouver by Texas. One specimen contained a dollar and six bits. Four miners went out with Texas on his return, Steffan, Campbell, Proebstel and one other unknown. There will soon be another stampede to the mines that will surpass the one last summer. These big lumps convince people that the Lewis river mines are not a humbug. There is much decomposed quartz and we have always believed a proper amount of energy will develop rich leads.

PLAZA MATINEE.—Programme, 23d Infantry Band, Saturday, November 27th, 3 o'clock, P. M.:

1. Veteran March.
2. Chorus from Traviata; Verdi.
3. Quadrille of English Airs; D'Albert.
4. Beautiful Bell Waltz.
5. Aria, from Sonnambula, Bellini.
6. The Anvil Polka.
7. Song, "Thou art so near and yet so far."
8. Ladies Gallop.

ORO FINO THEATER.—The sensation drama of Uncle Tom's Cabin, dramatized from Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe's famous novel of that name, was produced at Oro Fino Theater last evening. The characters of Topsy, Uncle Tom, Legree, etc., were very well personated by Mrs. Carter, Miss Cummings, Messrs. Bates, Carter, Barry, Morrison, Clinton and Ellerton. The same piece will be put on again to-night for the last time.

DRIVING AHEAD.—The woolen mill at Oregon City is running upon full time and some of the hands are even working over hours. The demand for goods is greater than for many months, and the mill scarcely keeps up with orders. This mill is the only one, we believe in the State, now in operation. It is making finer and better qualities of goods than formerly.

REAL ESTATE SALE.—At 10 o'clock this morning Mr. A. B. Richardson will offer at auction sale a considerable number of lots, and parts of blocks of choice business and homestead property in this city. For definite information, see his advertisement in this morning's OREGONIAN.

REPORTED OFF THE BAR.—It is reported that a vessel has been seen off the bar, supposed to be the bark Heaton from New York, bound for Portland. We learn that Capt. Crosby is of the opinion that it is the Heaton and that she has been off the bar for near three weeks.

DEDICATION ADDRESS.—Early next week we will publish, at the request of many of the Odd Fellows at Oregon City, the address of Bro. P. O. McCown, on the occasion of the dedication of the new hall. It is necessarily deferred for the present.

ANNUAL FAIR.—The ladies connected with the M. E. church are making preparations to hold their annual fair on Wednesday, Dec. 8th. A meeting will be held next Wednesday afternoon to perfect arrangements.

LECTURE.—Mrs. Benj. Todd will lecture at Harmony Hall to-morrow evening, Nov. 28th, on the subject of "The Slavery of Women." Admission free. Lecture to begin at seven o'clock.

CALIFORNIA MAIL.—The mails designed to go by steamship Moses Taylor, this afternoon, will close at a quarter past three o'clock.

FOR VICTORIA.—The steamship Gussie Telfair, Sherwood, Commander, will sail for Victoria and Sound ports at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The steamship Moses Taylor, Bolles, Commander, will sail for San Francisco at 4 P. M. to-day.

Use KANE'S IMPERIAL CONDENSED SOAP. It washes without rubbing. For sale by Allen & Lewis, Corbitt & McCleay, R. G. Sneath and all retailers.

The True Medical Doctrine.

Nature, when struggling with disease, indicates unmistakably the kind of assistance she requires. In cases of nervous weakness and general debility the feeble pulse, the lack-lustre eye, the attenuated frame, the flaccid muscles, the melancholy visage, inform us as plainly as if each organ had a tongue, that a medicated stimulant is needed. It does not require the aid of a medical education to understand this dumb appeal for new vigor from an exhausted system. Every reader of these lines can comprehend it just as well as the graduate of a physicians' college. Let not this demand of enfeebled nature be neglected. Respond to it promptly by commencing a course of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, a preparation uniting in their highest excellence the properties of a Stimulant, an Invigorant and an Alterative. Before three days have elapsed from the taking of the first dose, a marked beneficial change will be manifest in the bodily and mental condition of the patient. The pulse will be stronger and more regular, the eye will begin to lose its dull expression, the muscular and nervous systems to recover their tension, and the spirits to improve. Persevere and a complete revivification of the depressed animal and mental powers is certain. In cases of dyspepsia and biliousness, the same salutary results will be obtained. The appetite will revive, the sallowness of the skin disappear, and all the distressing symptoms which accompany disorders of the stomach and liver will rapidly subside. The cold of winter often intensifies these complaints by checking the perspiratory action by which so much morbid matter is evaporated through the pores in milder weather, and therefore the BITTERS are especially useful to the dyspeptic and bilious at this season.

FOREIGN NOTES

The number of women studying medicine at the University of Munich says the Pall Mall Gazette is increasing [illegible] progress [illegible] Four years ago there was but one; the next year there were four; last year there were eight, and now there are sixteen.

According to a comparative statement presented by Mr Ruggles, representative of our country to the Statistical Congress at the Hague, the total cereal produce of Europe in 1868 was 4,754,516,504 imperial bushels, or 16 bushels to each inhabitant, while that of the United States was 1,405,449,653, or 35 bushels per inhabitant.

Mr Roebuck, no doubt thinking the [illegible] was needed a few days since gave the following advice to a company of English workingmen: "Depend upon it that if you would introduce good and kindly manners among you all—think you well of this—be you all courteous gentlemen to your wives and to all women—I will use that good old English phrase, be you gentlemen to them, and you will be far happier in your families."

The use of nitro-glycerine is prohibited by law in Sweden, the country where it was first employed. A scientific Swede of a statistical turn of mind has computed that the explosion of a quarter of a ton of this mild mucilage would blow the entire territory of Sweden into the middle of the Arctic Sea. So the Rigsdag interferes and burghers parade the streets bearing banners upon which is inscribed the Swedish equivalent of "No Glycerine!"

An English journal gives an account of a curious society in Naples, Italy, called the Camorra. The purpose of this society it appears is to attend to other people's business, whether they wish it or not, and extorting payment for so doing. This strange society has been so severely dealt with by the present government that it has almost disappeared; but many of the members having been recently released from prison the Camorra shows symptoms of revival and the Italian journals are calling for its summary extermination. We have many Camorras in this country, every village having at least one and small towns an average of probably half a dozen each, but the government does not trouble itself about them, which is about the best way to deal with them, perhaps, after all.

FRESHEST GLEANINGS

Here is a personal advertisement in a French newspaper: "Eliza, you can return to the house. The boil on my nose is gone."

Abyssinians venerate the late Theodorus as a saint, and make a Mecca of his grave, where numerous miracles are performed.

Milan has lately become an important seat of the kid glove manufacture, almost rivaling Paris. 150,000 dozen gloves are now made annually in Milan, while in Naples, which used to stand next to Paris, less than one-quarter as many are now manufactured.

It is reported that Miss Middie Morgan, the stock market reporter of the New York Times and formerly equerry and superintendent of stables to King Victor Emanuel, has been offered by Leonard Jerome $10,000 toward establishing a riding school in the upper part of New York.

A Hartford letter gives the following: The publishing business here continues brisk as usual. Mark Twain's book is taking the lead of all others just now. Bowles' "New West" has met with a large sale. Barnum's book is evidently not bankered after much. Mrs Ellet's "Court Circles of the Republic" goes well, and there are several other subscription books, of less prominence, being worked off gradually. The business has been very profitable. One man who went into it five years ago with a capital of $2,000, is now worth $200,000 at the lowest estimate.

A Boston paper says: The "scratching" of the name of Horace Greeley in the back towns of New York, at the recent election, calls to mind the experience of the publishing firm in this city which [illegible] his "American Conflict," after he had signed the Jeff Davis bail bond. The first volume had been selling rapidly, some two hundred and fifty thousand copies having been disposed of, and orders were coming in for the second volume at the rate of about five hundred a day. Forty days after the "signing of the bond," the sales dropped off to fifty, and never rallied from that time forward. It was a loss of $50,000 to the publishing house, showing that to "fight mit Greeley" may be very unprofitable business.

VARIETIES

There is a man in New Jersey who insists on having his marriage ceremony repeated every year, going through the whole ceremony of new dress for his wife, dinner to his friends, &c.

A clergyman last summer visited the celebrated Hoosac Tunnel, and encountered a sprightly looking Irishman, who, in reply to the question, "Do you think this work will pay?" promptly replied, "Faith, no! But thin it'll be a great ornamint to society."

Flake's Galveston Bulletin, in seeking for a solution of the Indian question, thinks the army too expensive a means for extinguishment, says that whisky has proved about the most effective agent for Indian destruction, and thinks that it ought to be used freely until some more humane way is discovered.

The young man in Connecticut who kissed the girls at the station, thinking they were his sisters, has come to grief. He saw a finely dressed female at New Haven, quietly walked up to her, embraced and kissed her, when he was greeted with "Golly! what you 'bout dar," and beheld one of Africa's darkest brunettes. He retreated amid thunders of applause.

John C. Breckinridge and Humphrey Marshall met at Paris, Ky., recently. The former told the latter a war story which he had heard related, which hits off Marshall's immense size. "When General Marshall heard that General Pegram intended entering Kentucky with his command he felt as if his own preserves were being poached upon, and sent word to Pegram that he must not come into the State. Pegram replied he was preparing, and intended to enter Kentucky at once. Marshall declared that if he did he would have to pass over his (Marshall's) dead body. Whereupon Pegram responded that that would be too much to expect of his artillery, but if he found the obstacle in the way he would immediately tunnel through."

THE NEXT QUARTER of the Portland Academy and Female Seminary will begin November 22, 1869.

Weekly Retail Family Market

PORTLAND Nov 26 1869

The groceries and provision stores are doing the usual amount of business and seem well supplied with every article calculated to satisfy the appetites and adorn the tables of our people. In the article of bacon and lard the tendency of prices is downward. Eggs are in the same condition. Butter commands a somewhat higher figure, or at least is in better demand. Vegetables and fruits of all kinds are in abundant supply at low rates.

NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!

W. E. COOPER

HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive

Carriage Factory,

Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.

He respectfully refers to the following

CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.

It fastens without bolt or screw and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha, so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient [illegible]

It is easy to [illegible] this style for [illegible] buggy [illegible] We have [illegible] the new invention [illegible] We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent heretofore [illegible]
